

LISA SCOTTOLINE'S ROSATO & ASSOCIATES

Rosato & Associates is a series of legal thrillers featuring women who are partners at a law firm. The managing partner of the firm is Benedetta Rosato, but each book focuses on a different main character. The stories feature more than the professional lives of these lawyers. Investigation, rather than courtroom scenes, drives these stories, but there is plenty of legal detail. Complex, dangerous cases provide plenty of suspense, keeping readers turning pages right to the satisfying conclusion.

LISA SCOTTOLINE

Lisa Scottoline (b. 1955) is the bestselling and Edgar award-winning author of 28 novels, most of which are legal thrillers. Born in Philadelphia, Scottoline earned an undergraduate degree, as well as a law degree from the University of Pennsylvania and later became a litigator at a law firm in Philadelphia. After the birth of her daughter she left the law firm and started writing as a way to earn money from home. Scottoline has over 30 million copies of her books in print and is published in over 35 countries.

Lisa Scottoline combines her legal expertise with investigative details and suspenseful woman-in-jeopardy tales, leavened with humor and witty dialog. In both her Rosato and Associates novels and her stand-alones, memorable characterizations combine with a strong sense of place in the Philadelphia settings.

She also writes a weekly column with her daughter Francesca Serritella for the Philadelphia Inquirer titled "Chick Wit" which is a witty and fun take on life from a woman's perspective. She lives in the Philadelphia area with a menagerie of cats, dogs and chickens, and she wouldn't have it any other way.
