

Does a library enrich its community? Yes!
And you'll be amazed by how much the GPL offers.

The Georgetown Peabody Library — your library — has served our community since 1869.

- What can you borrow? Books, magazines, movies, music, boardgames, puzzles, hotspots, even pickleball paddles. More than 65,000 items are available at the library for free, including gardening tools and free seeds!
- Is there more? Yes! The library has art exhibits, a history collection, and quiet spaces to work or read newspapers and magazines – not to mention free access to computers, copier/printers, a fax machine, and the internet.

So... Does a community enrich its library? Yes!

With YOUR contributions, the Friends were able to fund these programs in 2024 that helped our library go above and beyond:

- Summer 2024 reading programs for children, teens, and adults, including a grand finale celebration for 100 children and their families
- Museum passes – free or discounted access to more than 10 in Boston and the local area
- A variety of concerts, author visits, game days, and take-home kits for all ages
- New library improvements, such as the beautiful custom shelving in the lobby

Please join us in supporting these programs at the GPL in 2025.
